

State of the Long Term Care Industry:

Survey of nursing home and assisted living providers show industry facing significant workforce crisis

September 2021

86% of nursing homes and 77% of assisted living providers said their workforce situation has gotten worse over the last three months.

Q: Since June 2021, would you say your organization's overall workforce situation has generally gotten better or worse?

Nearly every nursing home (99%) and assisted living community (96%) in the U.S. is facing a staffing shortage.

Q: What is your current staffing situation?

Nearly every nursing home and assisted living community is asking staff to work overtime or extra shifts.
58% of nursing homes are limiting new admissions due to staffing shortages.

Q. What adjustments have you made due to staffing shortages?

Nearly every nursing home and assisted living provider is having a difficult time hiring new staff with nearly 7 out of 10 saying they are having a very difficult time.

Q. How would you rate your ability to hire new staff?

More than 7 out of 10 long term care facilities said a lack of qualified candidates and unemployment benefits have been the biggest obstacles in hiring new staff.

Q. What has been the biggest obstacle in hiring new staff?

78% of nursing homes and 61% of assisted living communities are concerned workforce challenges might force them to close. More than one-third of nursing homes are very concerned about having to shut down their facility(ies).

Q. How concerned are you that if your workforce challenges persist that you may have to close your facility(ies)?

